12                                   AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

13                   Having answered Plaintiff's complaint, Defendant asserts the 14     following affirmative defenses:
15

16                   1.     The court lacks jurisdiction over some or all of Plaintiffs'
17     claims.

18                   2.     The Complaint and each alleged claim therein fails to state
19     facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action upon which relief may be granted.

20                   3.     Plaintiffs' claims are barred by the applicable statute of 21     limitations.

22                   4.     Plaintiffs have suffered no actual injury due to Defendants'
23     conduct.
25

1                   5.     The complaint is barred by res judicata and/or collateral
2 estoppel.

3                   6.     Plaintiffs lack standing to assert the claims asserted in the 4 Complaint.

5                   7.     Defendants are not liable as their conduct was not the 6 proximate cause of harm, if any, to plaintiffs.

7                   8.     The Complaint and each alleged claim for relief therein fails
8 to state facts sufficient to entitle plaintiffs to an award of punitive damages.

9                   9.     Plaintiffs failed to mitigate their damages.

10                  10.    The injuries and damages complained of by Plaintiffs, if any,
11 were directly and proximately caused by the negligence of the Plaintiffs and/or 12 persons other than Defendants, and such negligence comparatively reduces the 13 proportion of such negligence and corresponding liability of Defendants, if any 14 there be.
15

16                  11.    By reason of their own acts and omissions, Plaintiffs'
17 Complaint is barred by the doctrines of waiver, estoppel, laches and unclean
18 hands.

19                  12.    Defendants acted in good faith and did not directly or 20 indirectly perform any acts whatsoever which would constitute a violation of any 21 state or federal rights possessed by plaintiffs.

22                  13.    Defendants did not act with malicious intent or reckless
23 disregard of Plaintiffs' rights, and therefore are not liable for punitive damages.

1                   14.     Because the complaint is couched in conclusory terms,
2 Defendants cannot anticipate fully all affirmative defenses that may be applicable
3 in this matter. Accordingly, the right to assert additional affirmative defenses, if
4 and to the extent such affirmative defenses are applicable, is hereby reserved.

5                   WHEREFORE, Defendant prays as follows:

- 6                   1.     That judgment be rendered in favor of Defendant and 7 against Plaintiff;
8                   2.     That Plaintiff take nothing by reason of the Complaint;
9                   3.     That Defendant be awarded costs of suit and attorneys' fees;
10 and
11                   4.     For such other relief as this court may deem proper.

12                   DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

13                   The answering Defendant hereby demands a trial by jury.

14                   DATED THIS 5th day of January, 2016.
